

Z Club of Houston Meet:

This weekend I decided to try to gather some folks for a meet, I am welcome to any and all cars to show up but since I own a 300ZX TT, this is mostly the crowd that is getting the notification. Please feel free to send it to whoever else is interested. There will be a wide variety of cars from old ford fairlanes to brand new Z06 corvettes. The car show is every weekend, I don't plan on going every weekend but I wouldn't mind going once a month and plan on trying this for 3 months.

Date & Time:

July 7th 6:00 PM

Aug 4th 6:00 PM

Sep 1st 6:00 PM

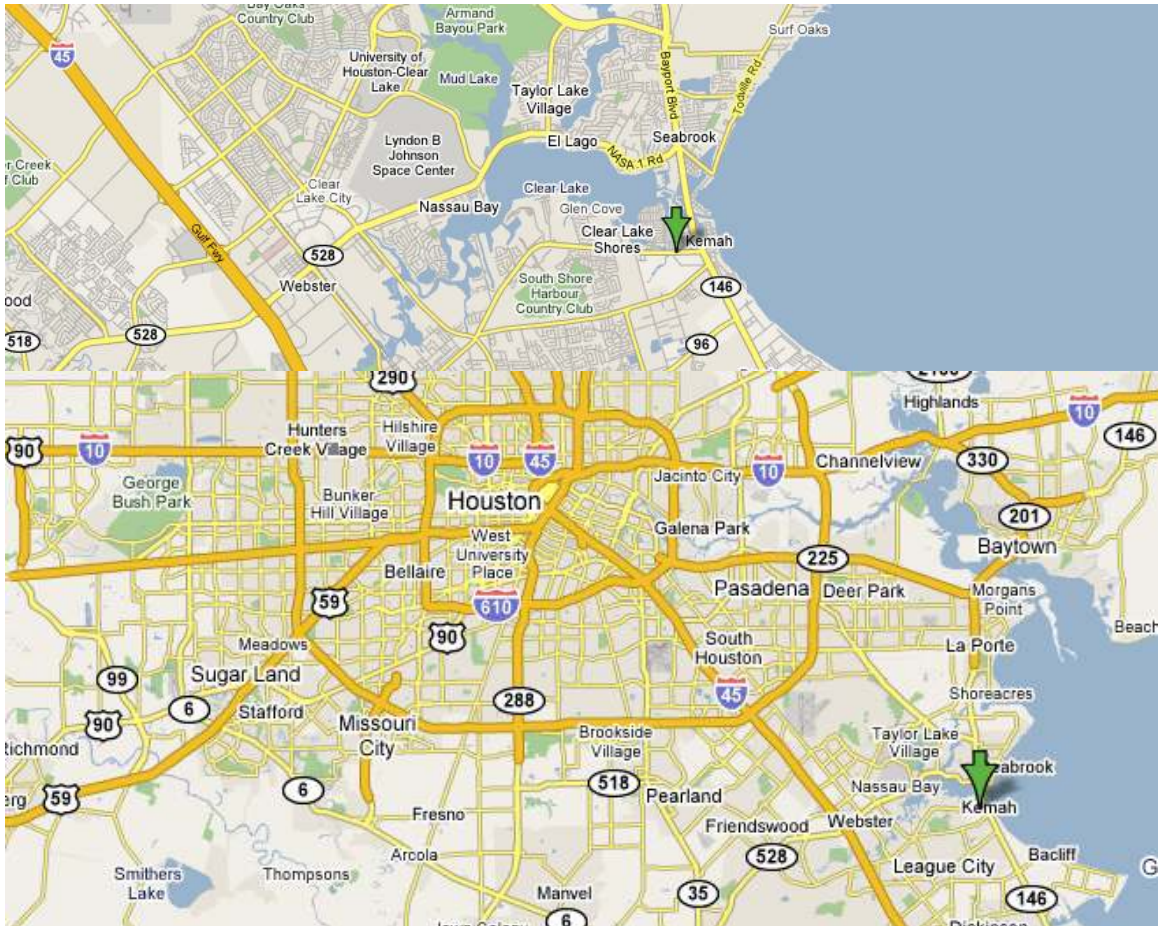

Location:

507 Fm 2094

Clearlake Shores, TX 77565

I would like to try to keep all the Z's in this area so if you come out you can find us at the location above from our local satellite shot. Here is a shot of where you can get an idea of the location. It's on the SE side of Houston as you can see from the follow maps.

Over the last two years a multitude of cars show up here on Saturday starting at around 5PM, and will last till around 10PM. It's a very large parking lot for Home Depot & Super Target.

Food:

- Chilis (wife's favorite)
- Chik-Fil-A
- Taco Cabana
- Beer Garden (Great Burgers and Beer)
- Wendy's
- IHOP (International House of Pancakes)

This is also the location for the Kemah Boardwalk, which is a nice place to go after you get tired of looking at cars and take your significant other to a nice dinner as well.

Please email me at john@strangeness.org if you have any comments/questions, or concerns. I hope to see everyone out there.
